Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp.

This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Dick Cheney

Your Life Progressions for Aug 1, 2010

Scorpio on the First Cusp

There is a strong intuitive feeling that many changes lie ahead of you. You may feel an urgency to renew or update your appearance, as if preparing for the inevitable. You may tint your hair or change its style, go on a diet, or have a facial mole removed. Even your attire will be modernized. From time to time, matters pertaining to insurance settlements, health benefits, inheritance, income tax, alimony, mortgages, or other forms of mutual finances will require your attention. Be careful that you do not wield monetary issues as a means of manipulation over another. Your sex drive may increase or undergo a complete reversal. An inner tension, not apparent on the surface, can create emotional turmoil when rejection confronts you. A possible resentment may develop against a situation that appears restrictive. It is your sense of fairness that keeps you from forcing your desired changes, from seeking full control of your own life and personal affairs. Guard against emotional upheavals, for they can play havoc with the elimination process. The condition of your progressed ascendant ruler, Pluto, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Scorpio on the Second Cusp

You are becoming more energetic and resourceful in your ability to increase personal finances. Greater secrecy surrounds your monetary affairs. You have learned from the past that family and certain other people may try to borrow funds from you. You have become more astute in requesting papers to be signed with definite rules for repayment, if and when you do make loans. Your monetary situation will undergo periodic changes. Your partner may retire or seek disability compensation. You may gain through inheritance, alimony, or insurance benefits. From time to time, you will have to contact your insurance agent for weather damages to your home or accidents with your car. Be sure to keep records intact in case of IRS auditing. This is an excellent placement for gain from the resources of others.

Sagittarius on the Third Cusp

Bitter resentments of past hurts are slowly diminishing as you develop a strong sense of justice and optimism. Religion, social values, and philosophical subjects become pronounced. Your good natured-attitude may find you promising more than you can actually deliver. As a result, you may find yourself backed up against the wall, wondering how you got yourself in such a predicament. You are more apt to have communications with people in faraway places, foreigners, or those of a different race. During this trend it is possible a brother or sister may move to a distant city. You are likely to have more contact with relatives of your marriage partner. You have to be careful that differences in opinions do not lead to quarrels and misunderstandings with close kin.

Mars in Aquarius

What are your goals in life? Your hopes and wishes? Your aspirations? Mars has progressed into Aquarius. To achieve your fondest desires, you will have to form a personal plan of action and go about it objectively. Only through self-assertiveness and personal initiative can you hope to succeed in your ambitions. Radio, TV, CBs, astrology, computers -- the electrical or mechanical fields -- may become a part of your daily affairs. Look inwardly for possible inventive abilities that could prove productive. Friends and associations can be either helpful or, at times, troublesome. Men who enter into your life are likely to appear almost out of nowhere, through the most unusual circumstances. They may have a weird sense of humor and be regarded by some as being somewhat different.

Mars in the Third House

Something has changed in your personal affairs to create a new mental outlook on life. You have become independent, aggressive, and decisive. This new resourcefulness assures quick thinking in emergency situations, but can also cause you to overreact in certain instances, jumping to conclusions and losing your temper through misinterpreting statements of others. Your first impulse is to tell that person off immediately. Invariably, you regret these actions. Make it a habit to count to ten before you make impulsive or impetuous judgments. There is increased mechanical ability. You will have ease in working with machinery related to the communication field, such as telephone, printing press, mail trucks, auto repair and assembly, or other transportation vehicles. Don't drive when you are angry or running behind schedule -- hasty driving can lead to reckless decisions and possible accidents. Be careful of what you say or write on paper to avoid disputes that may arise through these areas. Brothers and sisters can also be a source of dissension, or one of them may require surgery.

Aquarius on the Fourth Cusp

Any changes made in connection with your home environment will be of an abrupt and unexpected nature. It is difficult to maintain a normal routine atmosphere within the home base. There is constant disruptive altering of plans or friend dropping in at the most inopportune moment. "Acts of God" (such as tornados, floods, or wind storms) may alter the basic structure of your home base or the landscape. A parent may be an astrologer, television or radio personality, or have other unusual, interesting hobbies. It is possible to establish a strong emotional bond with a close friend.

Pisces on the Fifth Cusp

Creative or unusual hobbies such as music, art, dancing, photography, ESP, and yoga are excellent escapisms from everyday stress. You have become very sentimental and emotional in feelings of romance. You may find your ideal love relationship or experience the depths of despair and disappointments. Do not be too trusting, as matters are not always as they appear on the surface. Step-children, adopted children, or those who are mentally or emotionally disturbed may touch upon your life. This is not the time to ignore the affairs of your own children. They are very susceptible to the influence of others at this time. Some may develop foot problems or a sensitivity to certain medications. Your second sibling may be undergoing a very confused state of affairs.

Mercury in Pisces

As Mercury progresses into the mediumistic sign of Pisces, your thoughts become more attuned to psychic impressions. Your mental state of mind is likely to be influenced by surrounding conditions, your environment, and the temperamental moods of others. Due to the increased emotional sensitivity that accompanies this placement, you may come in contact with the mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped. It would be wise on your part not to absorb their problems or permit them to use you as a sounding board. New studies may be undertaken in the field of medicine, nursing, healing, psychology, photography, art, music, or dancing. Your newfound extraordinary imagination may provide an outlet for creative writing. Be ready to assist siblings or other close ties if they appear to be having problems with health, drugs, or alcohol.

Mercury in the Fifth House

You have a natural flair for blending intellectual matters with artistic and educational pursuits. Schools and children become prominent in your life, in your role as a teacher or as a parent helping your child with homework. There is a tendency to be too analytical or faultfinding in matters surrounding children or romance. Anxiety and worry in connection with these areas can create a stressed condition that often reacts on the nervous system. Frequent short trips or paperwork may be tied in some way with romance, children, or speculation. Taking the time to study or research various speculative programs can prove advantageous. Children of your brother, sister, or a neighbor may play an important role in your life during this trend.

Mercury Opposition Neptune (Prg-Nat) Aug 29, 2010

Lack of awareness of surrounding conditions or environmental circumstances can leave you open to deception through those you trusted the most. Be aware of hidden factors in connection with agreements and important papers. Your imagination can be expanded out of proportion, making it difficult for others to communicate with you. Be on guard against any possible mix-up in medical diagnoses or medication prescribed for you. There is a tendency for letters, messages, and phone calls to be misplaced or confused. Take the time to double-check all forms of communications.

Mercury Sextile Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Jan 10, 2011

You are entering an active period for educational or learning pursuits, journeys, new enterprises, or changes in vocational interests. You would do well in public relations, teaching, lecturing, writing, or working for the government. You will have the ability to express yourself logically and intellectually, presenting the possibility of public contact through newspaper work, radio, or television.

Aries on the Sixth Cusp

New developments, opportunities, and challenges lie ahead in your vocational duties. You have more confidence in your own capabilities to make positive changes than you have had in the past. If not given a supervisory position, you may be placed in charge whenever the boss is absent. You function best independently and when others permit you to reach your own decisions. This sign is associated with accidents that can occur at work or with migraine headaches and high fevers.

Sun in Aries

Your progressed Sun in Aries adds a positive, ambitious, independent, and courageous coloring to your present character. No longer will you permit others to take unfair advantage of you. No longer will you permit personal feelings, emotions, and foolish pride to influence your actions. Your self-confidence, enthusiasm, and initiative are enhanced. If and when you lose your temper, it will not be directed at the individual as much as the idea they represent. Success in new enterprises and undertakings depends solely upon the type of energy you put forth. Be optimistic and sincere when new challenges confront you. Unreliable men of weak character will soon be dropped from your circle of acquaintances. They will be replaced with the strong, masculine, independent type -- those who are decisive and leaders in their own sphere.

Sun in the Sixth House

You take great pride in methodical and organized handling of work-related details. To be a truly productive employee, you require praise and recognition of your efforts. You are terribly ambitious and will always strive to better yourself by being alert for new job openings and opportunities. One of your major objectives is to hold a position of authority where you are in a supervisory capacity over others. Your physical stamina may not be up to par. Frequent rest periods may help to alleviate these periodic bouts of lethargy. Pushing yourself beyond your capacity can open the door to possible health problems with the back, heart, or eyes. Male co-workers are more likely to be of help and assistance than females.

Sun Square Venus (Prg-Nat) Oct 8, 2011

A difficult and trying time for domestic affairs, close romantic ties, associations, and marriage. Feelings and emotions are ultra-sensitive and easily hurt. Too much trust and faith in the wrong individual or romantic party can lead to a devastating, affectional experience. Either you are being smothered or possessed by someone, or they are not returning the fondness and affection you are giving out. Try to control extravagant expenditures, as this can be a financially draining time. There is the possibility of a break-up of close existing ties or separation from a family member.

Venus in Aries

The planet Venus is associated with sociability, love, and sense of harmony. Now that she has progressed into the positive sign of Aries, you will not be as vulnerable in love relationships as you have been in the past. You will be more aggressive and, at times, take the initiative where action is slow in developing. Be alert to new creative ideas and, if single, new love interests. Guard against extravagance and impulsive spending. Don't be too hasty in joining partnerships or entering into marriage. Give yourself time to evaluate the pros and cons of every new venture or opportunity that is destined to come your way.

Venus in the Sixth House

Peace, serenity, and a harmonious atmosphere are required if you are to be productive in your line of work. There appears to be a popular demand for your talents and specialized skill. Co-workers may provide an outlet for social enjoyment and relaxation. On occasion, you may have to attend various functions in connection with your job. Your friendly, genial attitude will draw admiration from others and, on occasion, lead to an affectional relationship. Cooperative efforts or partnership arrangements are more to your liking as daily routine work appears burdensome when you have to tackle it alone. Make it a point to drink plenty of fluids to maintain balance in your system. Fluids also help in youthful skin appearance and eliminating possible kidney problems. Contacts with or through the affairs of women may have an affect on your job.

Venus Trine Mars (Prg-Nat) May 17, 2010

There is a certain air of personal magnetism about you that is likely to attract the opposite sex. You may notice an increased intensity of feelings and emotions. You have a happy frame of mind with thoughts of social interaction and pleasurable get-togethers. New romantic attachments, formed now, are sure to have a lasting quality about them. This trend is favored for new business ventures and financial endeavors. Married individuals desirous of having children will have a greater chance for pregnancy.

Venus Sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Jul 2, 2010

Your emotions and feelings are ultra-sensitive at this time. This can create a problem when dealing with women, romantic attachments and business or marital partnerships. Guard against extravagance and unwise or risky ventures that can result in financial loss. Have your reproductive system checked, as well as any potential for blood clots, growths, and varicose veins.

Taurus on the Seventh Cusp

Influential partners, associates, and close allies can be of financial assistance during this trend. It is possible you may have to depend upon your marriage partner to carry most of the financial burdens at this time. There is a tendency to be too demanding, possessive, jealous, and intense about your close relationships. Unless you bend and yield a little, you may turn them totally against you. Social functions in your home with a few choice friends are more to your liking at this time.

Jupiter in the Seventh House

Others are drawn to your attractive personality, grace, charm, and tactful manner. Social contacts can be very beneficial, providing a means of contacting influential and prominent people who can help promote future progress. There is a willingness to cooperate with close ties, associates, and business partnerships. This placement can enhance the opportunity for marriage -- if not for yourself, then for those within the immediate family. Any form of travel is likely to be in the company of another person or because of their influence. People of all colors, races, religions, and walks of life will touch upon your personal affairs during this trend. Many long distance phone calls, letters, and trips will revolve around a close relationship.

Saturn in the Seventh House

You are slowly developing a strong sense of duty, responsibility, and conscientiousness toward those in your immediate circle. A love union can be formed with someone of a vast difference in age. This person may be reserved in attitude, yet loyal and dependable. This has all the earmarks of a long-lasting relationship, but one that may not consummate in marriage for one reason or another. Sociability is limited somewhat to a small select group of friends with whom you feel more at ease. If married, there may be a cooling in the relationship, perhaps due to overwork or ill health of the partner that may interfere with sexual or emotional fulfillment. This is an excellent placement for working on or completing a difficult task that requires isolation from others.

Uranus in the Seventh House

A sudden surge for independence may instigate changes in the marriage state or with close relationships. You may feel a lack of sympathy or tolerance from those in your immediate circle. Expect the possibility for hasty and unexpected marriages to take place -- if not involving yourself, then perhaps through family members. Strange, unusual, and unconventional people will enter your life during this trend, bringing with them new and different experiences. Social or public functions may be connected with large groups of people for the advancement of thought and exchange of ideas. Many of these may be associated with seminars, conventions, or attending lectures.

Taurus on the Eighth Cusp

Money and valued possessions will come your way from time to time, through the resources of others. Insurance claims are likely to be settled in your behalf. There is the possibility of an inheritance or expensive gifts from others. Because you give of yourself freely and completely in sexual relationships, you see nothing wrong in receiving monetary compensation in exchange. In fact, if a gift is not given or if you are not taken out to dinner, you may feel as though the other person doesn't care enough.

Gemini on the Ninth Cusp

If you are in higher education at this time, in all likelihood you will change your major and even your college in mid-term. You may be doing a great deal of letter writing or phone calling to a brother or sister in a distant city. Legal action is likely regarding a bus, car, motorcycle, or a neighbor.

Pluto in the Ninth House

As Pluto enters your progressed ninth house, it instills a restless urgency to enforce change, perhaps because you feel controlled or dominated by someone -- an educator, in-law, or other authoritative figure. You may drop out of college, change your major, move to a distant city, or even consider new religious affiliations. There is a strong desire for personal advancement -- this should be kept under control, for there is the possibility of overextending yourself financially, through heavy mortgage or credit payments. Legal action may be undertaken for bankruptcy or consolidation of bills. Relocating to a new city or area may not be the answer -- if your attitude of over-optimism still prevails, the same pattern is likely to repeat itself. There is the possibility of gain or financial assistance from in-laws or distant relatives.

Midheaven Conjunction Pluto (Prg-Prg) Aug 27, 2010

There is a possibility that the next few years will produce a complete change of occupational interests. You may even consider returning to a former position which may require research and additional studies to incorporate the new methods and techniques that have been added. You may get a new boss who is likely to renew, alter, or renovate old methodical procedures, upsetting your established routine. This can be an emotionally trying time in which changing situations may alter affairs of a parent through concern for their health or possible loss.

Leo on the Tenth Cusp

Working with children, in nightclubs and places of entertainment, or holding a position of management are great possibilities for new vocational outlets. Whatever you do in your line of work, there has to be a sense of pride and personal achievement involved. Ridicule or criticism of your vocation can dash your ego to the ground. Keep a close weather eye on one of your parents, as this sign is associated with strokes and heart problems.

Midheaven Conjunction Pluto (Prg-Nat) Sep 13, 2011

There is a possibility that the next few years will produce a complete change of occupational interests. You may even consider returning to a former position which may require research and additional studies to incorporate the new methods and techniques that have been added. You may get a new boss who is likely to renew, alter, or renovate old methodical procedures, upsetting your established routine. This can be an emotionally trying time in which changing situations may alter affairs of a parent through concern for their health or possible loss.

Virgo on the Eleventh Cusp

Attending large social gatherings is usually associated with your job, but you personally prefer a small select group of friends for your entertainment. You may have to provide moral support for some of your friends as they undergo various health problems. Most of your friends will be met through your place of employment. No matter how hard you try, you'll never be able to please one particular daughter- or son-in-law.

Moon in Libra

Accept social invitations that may open the door to new relationships, possibly leading to marriage or business partnerships. There is a strong desire for love and affection -- and in some cases -- a dependency on the partner. Be selective, however, in your choice of companions. While some may be beneficial to your well being, others may prove detrimental by drawing you into an undesirable situation where the other party may be married or undergoing a difficult divorce. If you are already married, this placement will affect your present relationship either by enhancing and strengthening or by causing a wedge and possible separation. For those happily married, it is best not to tempt fate by promoting close ties with the opposite sex. Dealings with an attorney, physician, or counselor are possible during this trend. Drink plenty of fluids to maintain balance within the system and avoid the possibility of kidney problems. Other vulnerable areas of health can involve the veins or ovaries. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to provide additional insight in connection with marriage or business partnerships.

Moon in the Eleventh House

You are entering a phase in which events of an unexpected nature are likely to occur. The many sudden ups and downs in situations will make it impossible to maintain a normal routine existence. An interest in group-related activities is likely to be promoted at this time, increasing the probability of starting or enrolling in a club or organization. New friends will enter your social circle. Some will be conducive to your wellbeing, while others may be a source of emotional drain. This placement also highlights activities in connection with daughters- or sons-in-laws and step-children. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for further indications of friends and associations.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Nat) Jan 9, 2010

You can make great strides during the next three months if you concentrate on projects that are difficult to handle and require an isolated condition from which to operate. Affairs connected with finances or business matters will be rather depressing. You are likely to brood or worry over delays in personal affairs. This is not the best time to ask favors of bosses, parents, or older individuals, or for beginning new projects. Your system may be sluggish, so get plenty of rest to renew your lowered vitality during this trend.

Moon Trine Uranus (Prg-Prg) Jan 29, 2010

Fresh starts and greater magnetic attraction toward the opposite sex (and people in general) may be the trend for the next few months. Excitement is in the air, bringing changes of an unexpected nature that may completely change your entire routine existence. There is the possibility of sudden and unexpected financial or material gains. Unexpected and beneficial influences that hold the promise of improvements, advancements, and possibly a whole new way of life. You may receive a commendation or recognition from a club or organization. Take advantage of this beneficial period by advancing personal interests. Consider different and unusual studies or travel, and remove the outgrown and obsolete to make way for the new and unique.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Nat) Feb 1, 2010

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Moon Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Prg) Mar 9, 2010

During this trend you may experience prophetic dreams, psychic phenomena, or the ability to read the other person's mind. This is a creative period that will enable you to escape from the harshness and reality of life by indulging yourself in painting, music lessons, dancing, ceramics, or cake decorating. You may come in contact with unusually gifted people. Some may be phonies, pretending to be something they are not. Others may be mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped. Keep an invisible barrier around you, to guard against the distraught ones that will attempt to use you as a sounding board for their troubles. Hospitals and other places of confinement may directly or indirectly touch upon your life.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Sun (Prg-Nat) Mar 11, 2010

Physical stamina, vitality, and your general state of health may not be up to par. During the next few months all relationships are best kept at arm's length to avoid possible disputes or confrontations. This is not the time to push ahead in business or personal endeavors. Obstacles and drawbacks are likely to hinder or impair potential opportunities.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Prg) Apr 5, 2010

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Nat) Apr 20, 2010

During this trend you may experience prophetic dreams, psychic phenomena, or the ability to read the other person's mind. You may come in contact with unusually gifted people. Some may be phonies, pretending to be something they are not. Others may be mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped. Keep an invisible barrier around you, to guard against the distraught ones that will attempt to use you as a sounding board for their troubles. Hospitals and other places of confinement may directly or indirectly touch upon your life.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Nat) May 4, 2010

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jun 8, 2010

You can make great strides during the next three months if you concentrate on projects that are difficult to handle and require an isolated condition from which to operate. Affairs connected with finances or business matters will be rather depressing. You are likely to brood or worry over delays in personal affairs.
