Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Rush Limbaugh Your Life Progressions for Jan 1, 2009

Capricorn on the First Cusp

Your happy-go-lucky nature is tinged with a serious quality that lies beneath the surface. Others may find you difficult to know or understand, especially when your moods of depression take hold. An independent, self-sufficient attitude prevails. You do not want help, nor do you ask for it. Conditions involving a personal matter or your environment appear to be isolating you from the world at large. You are slowly becoming a loner -- only a few close friends and family members enter your social circle. Dependency is second nature, as hindrances and delays appear to place advancements and success on hold. Those in authority admire you for your ability to persevere in handling difficult tasks. Your attitude would be more positive if your earning power matched your laborious efforts. Someone older, someone from the past, or a figure of authority will have a marked influence upon your life. This is a good time to have your teeth checked, take care of skin problems, and guard against possible knee injury. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Saturn, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Sun in the First House

Strive to develop a better personality and strengthen your self-confidence in order to open the door to greater attainments with excellent results. Independence and leadership qualities are pronounced. Arriving at decisions and conclusions of personal plans on your own will prove more beneficial than accepting the counsel of others. It may be difficult for you to accept a position of lesser status than you desire, for your sense of pride in personal attainments is very strong at this time. The affairs, actions, or interests of male relationships will play an important role in circumstances surrounding your personal or family affairs.

Sun Semisquare Venus (Prg-Nat) Mar 15, 2010

A difficult and trying time for domestic affairs, close romantic ties, associations, and marriage. Feelings and emotions are ultra-sensitive and easily hurt. Too much trust and faith in the wrong individual or romantic party can lead to a devastating, affectional experience. Either you are being smothered or possessed by someone, or they are not returning the fondness and affection you are giving out. Try to control extravagant expenditures, as this can be a financially draining time. There is the possibility of a break-up of close existing ties or separation from a family member.

Mercury in the First House

An active restless spirit prevails, which induces many changes in personal affairs. Your mind is constantly assimilating facts and figures. Sometimes it may be difficult to turn the thinking process off, especially at bedtime when a good night's sleep is most important. Study, mental activity paper work, letter writing, skilled manual dexterity, or frequent short trips may dominate much of your free time. Always maintain a positive state of mind. Negative thoughts can easily act on the health of the body. Perseverance may be necessary, should the desire for changeability or the tendency to procrastinate persist. The affairs of brothers, sisters, neighbors, aunts, or uncles are generally active during this trend.

Mars in the First House

You're on a roll, with loads of energy to spare. You're feeling aggressive, independent, and eager to begin new projects. Just pace yourself a bit, so you don't antagonize others with abrupt and impulsive actions. There is initiative, with personal involvement in new ventures or undertakings. You are striving for independence and freedom of movement in everyday affairs. New ideas that offer exciting challenges appeal to you now. This placement reacts strongly on a personal level, where one is forced to take the lead in certain situations or activities. You may experience a noticeable lack of cooperation from others. Learn to handle tasks and arrive at decisions on your own. Exercise patience in driving, daily activities, and contact with others, as this planet can arouse the tendency toward carelessness, argumentativeness, and disputes. It is also associated with cuts, bruises, burns, migraine headaches, and accidents.

Mars Sextile Venus (Prg-Nat) Mar 19, 2010

There is a certain air of personal magnetism about you that is likely to attract the opposite sex. You may notice an increased intensity of feelings and emotions. You have a happy frame of mind with thoughts of social interaction and pleasurable get-togethers. New romantic attachments, formed now, are sure to have a lasting quality about them. This trend is favored for new business ventures and financial endeavors. Married individuals desirous of having children will have a greater chance for pregnancy.

Jupiter in the First House

There is a distinctive positive change in your personality. Self-expression radiates through an optimistic spirit of cheerfulness, sincerity, and pleasant mannerisms. The influence of this planet is always more or less fortunate. Being the planet of luck, it can bring opportunities for successful enterprise, business, travel, or continuing your education. An excellent placement for writers, educators, religious individuals, and wide-scale communication systems such as those connected with the U. S. Postal Service, radio, television, newspaper, published material, interstate travel, exports, and aeronautics. Involvement in lawsuits or seeking legal action against another is possible. In-laws people from all walks of life, background, race, and professional standing, will enter your life.

Aquarius on the Second Cusp

Your goals and aspirations are presently centered around money. It appears rather difficult to maintain a steady income. There will be periods where money comes in steadily, then suddenly there is a reversal and it goes out just as fast. You are quite inventive and often discover short cuts that make your vocational tasks easier and faster to accomplish. Your boss will notice and be interested in your technique. Don't share this knowledge without due monetary compensation. You can be too giving in this respect. Choose your friends wisely, and select constructive associations who can react favorably on personal money matters.

Uranus in the Second House

There is the element of the unexpected that colors your financial picture. A new situation is developing that proves interesting, yet disruptive, in the steady flow of monetary gain. It may be a new job, or perhaps a side job in which there is fluctuation of earnings. Sudden gains appear through the most unusual and unexpected situations. However, losses can occur just as abruptly through the business, car, or home, requiring expensive computer, battery, or electrical repairs. Friends, clubs, organizations, or attending seminars or conventions can prove gainful or stressful concerning financial affairs.

Neptune in the Second House

You'll have to remain on your toes and alert at all times where personal finances are concerned. Matters can get so confused, even when you are not at fault. Bank statements can get lost or computers go haywire, indicating insufficient funds and setting you off into a state of frenzy trying to prove you are not in error. Save all receipts, especially medical and hospital bills. Keep your pay stubs until the promised raise or bonus has been received, or the overtime paid. Being gullible at this time will not merit you financial gains. Hidden or unforeseen monetary rewards will surprise you -- a forgotten dividend check is received or a friend pays back an old loan. Whatever the case may be, you will experience this from time to time. For one reason or another, you may be tempted to have a secret savings account or hide money away that no one knows about. You will get more enjoyment out of your personal funds if you can afford a cottage by the lake, a trailer in the woods, or a small boat for fishing.

Pisces on the Third Cusp

You are highly emotional and imaginative in your thoughts and communications. There is strength in your psychic and intuitive ability, but they can prove unreliable at times. Your mind works best when you are alone without a lot of confusion or noise to disturb your train of thought. People will sense your sympathetic nature and bend your ear with their innermost secrets. This can prove emotionally and mentally draining if it is permitted to get out of hand. Your temperament is conditioned by your environment. Arguments and discord in your surroundings easily upset your nervous system. If you feel the need to escape from the harshness and reality of life, take up the study of yoga, music or dancing lessons, art, or other forms of creative expressions. This sign is associated with mental, emotional, or physical problems surrounding the affairs of a brother or sister. During this trend it is possible one may be hospitalized or have an illness that is correctable through medication.

Moon in the Third House

This is one of the busiest trends of your life. Activities are centered around frequent short trips, phone calls, and letter-writing. Direct your restless mind into new channels. Golfing, model-making, knitting, or study courses will aid in keeping from fretting about insignificant worries. An emotional bond may be formed between yourself and a sibling or neighbor. Do not permit your mind to dwell on past slights or what you feel was a personal affront or criticism. The sign position of your progressed Moon may disclose positive outlets for mental expressions and studies.

Moon Conjunction Moon (Prg-Nat) Jan 30, 2009

Events of the next few months are likely to bring some minor changes in your everyday activities. Women are apt to play an active role in personal affairs, or new acquaintances may enter your life. You may decide to alter conditions of your living quarters, consider new occupational offers, or make travel plans for the near future.

Moon Square Pluto (Prg-Nat) May 7, 2009

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Don't fall for easy, money-making, get-rich-quick schemes.

Moon Square Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Apr 27, 2010

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Quincunx Saturn (Prg-Prg) Oct 9, 2010

You may be required to take on an additional responsibility that could easily drain your energy -- perhaps working longer hours at your place of employment or having to care for an ill parent or other older member of the family. You should maintain an optimistic state of mind, and avoid complaining. Mental depression will only hinder future advancements and possibly have an affect upon your health.

Moon Square Mercury (Prg-Prg) Nov 1, 2010

You will have to be careful when dealing with correspondences, documents, purchase agreements, contracts, or important phone calls. There may be some misleading statements or lack of clarity in verbal details that can easily be misunderstood. It would be wise to double check such matters during this trend. Negotiations, appointments, or business meetings are likely to undergo an upsetting change of plans. Too many projects can be demanding of your time and force a delay in promised deliveries. Should travel be necessary, use precaution by having the car checked in advance by a reliable mechanic. Disputes or matters of concern will surround the affairs of brothers, sisters, or other close ties. In general, these three months are not favorable for travel, purchase of a car, new ventures, or business.

Moon Sextile Neptune (Prg-Nat) Dec 18, 2010

You may have accurate psychic impressions during this trend, which can pay off if you listen to them. Strange and prophetic dreams may try to relate a message while you are sleeping or meditating. It may be possible to develop the art of visualization -- seeing in your mind's eye what you hope to achieve in life, and then feeding the subconscious mind the picture as though you already achieved it. Unforeseen rewards may come your way, for favors you have generously given in the past.

Moon Sextile Neptune (Prg-Prg) Dec 20, 2010

It may be possible to develop the art of visualization -- seeing in your mind's eye what you hope to achieve in life, and then feeding the subconscious mind the picture as though you already achieved it. Unforeseen rewards may come your way, for favors you have generously given in the past.

Venus in the Third House

Diplomatic or public relations work could be your forte at this time. You are gracious and well mannered, and communicate well through the written or spoken word. You do not sit in judgment of others or reach major decisions until you have thoroughly evaluated both sides of the issues at hand. You are drawn toward the intellectual and cultural pursuits. There may be some creative ability in the field of art, literature, poetry, or music. Short travels can be both pleasurable and profitable -- more so if accompanied by a companion, for you dislike traveling alone. Mutual benefits can be derived from brothers or sisters, either directly or indirectly.

Taurus on the Fourth Cusp

Taurus is a peaceful sign, desirous of harmony and cooperation within the home base. You may find arguments, upsetting conditions, or disruption of routine intolerable. Money is spent freely on home improvements and comfortable furniture. Moving to a new home or relocating requires a good deal of adjustment on your part. There is the possibility of financial gain through the selling of real estate or monetary assistance through a parent.

Taurus on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible you have a creative hobby that can be turned into a real moneymaker -- whether it is miniature doll house building, hair styling, giving music lessons, or cake decorating. Whatever it may be, look to the source for possible additional income. You have strong feelings when it comes to romance and are consistent in your affections. You have great pride in your child's accomplishments and like to endow them with personal comforts. When it comes to sports, you may be more of a watcher than a doer. You may be too cautious for investments. Your best bets would be individual retirement accounts, banks, or finance corporations. A child or your second oldest sibling may be a source of financial drain or gain.

Gemini on the Sixth Cusp

An adjustment will be necessary in your line of work. Situations are changing, or soon will. It appears that more paperwork or the introduction of new operational techniques may require additional studies. Your mental attitude will play an important role in your job duties, health factors, and relationships with co-workers.

Cancer on the Seventh Cusp

You now have a natural flair for sensing the needs and desires of the general public. You are likely to draw highly emotional and sensitive individuals into your social circle. Property or the affairs of parents of your business or marriage partner will be highlighted.

Leo on the Eighth Cusp

You give complete love and loyalty to your choice of a sexual and romantic partner. Your sense of pride and ego are conditioned by the responses you receive in return. They can be dashed to the ground quite easily through rejection or betrayal. You may find yourself in the role of lending agent with romantic partners or children. Your generosity is admirable; however, you should protect your interests with some sort of legal document. There is a possibility, during this trend, of controlling funds of children or providing for their support, as in alimony.

Saturn in the Eighth House

You may be called upon to handle a very difficult task that calls for self-discipline and painstaking research in an isolated condition. The thoroughness in which you handle the details of this project will determine the long-range benefits to be derived from it. Sexual matters appear to undergo a restrictive influence -- perhaps your partner has a health problem or may be physically exhausted from overtime hours at work. This placement is associated with a sad experience involving the loss of someone or something that instills the realization, and the finality, of death. This could be the loss of an old (but beloved) pet or of a grandparent or other aged member of the family. There is the possibility that a parent may be a source of financial burden and responsibility.

Saturn Semisquare Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Sep 30, 2010

You may experience a slow trend affecting business and finances. Obstacles, hindrances, and disappointments are likely to affect progress and advancements in your career. This is not the time to change jobs or shirk responsibilities. You may experience a possible loss or separation from a parent, or disputes with bosses or a figure of authority. This trend can produce a turning point in your career through a complete change of occupation. The action is abrupt, unexpected, and generally reverses present duties. New technical equipment, computers, or machinery may be introduced in your line of work. It may be very difficult for you to maintain normal working hours, for they can fluctuate quite easily. New bosses may be difficult to get along with or may try to impose their will on you. There is a possibility of coming before the public through a personal appearance on radio or television.

Virgo on the Ninth Cusp

Travel, for you, means getting away from it all -- going somewhere that is peaceful and quiet, where you can hear the sounds of rippling waters and chirping birds, where your nervous system gets a chance to relax. If you are thinking of returning to school, the medical field would be an excellent choice. Bookkeeping, CPA, or drafting would be other good choices. Should legal action arise, it may involve a health hazard in your working conditions or possible job discrimination.

Scorpio on the Tenth Cusp

It would be wise to seek a business of your own. Something is changing in your career goals, causing a resentment against authority. You may feel that your boss or someone you work with is too domineering and dictatorial. Protesting only creates unpopularity. You work hard and consider yourself extremely productive, yet you feel your efforts are not appreciated or financially compensated. Jobs that affect money through the masses are likely to touch upon your life (such as income tax consultant, lottery tickets, bingo cards, racing forms, insurance agent, mortgages, or sales tax). You may rely on one of your parents to act as a sort of lending agency when your own finances run short.

Midheaven Square Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Sep 19, 2010

This is not a very fortunate trend. Business and finances are at a slow pace, almost to the point of damaging your credit rating. This is not the time to undertake new ventures or a business enterprise. There will be a lack of cooperation with influential people, bosses, and government officials. Be careful in signing important contracts; you won't want to take on more than what you can actually handle at this time. Possible disputes involving social affairs, in-laws, schools, colleges, educators, or sex and racial discrimination in connection with your job. In general terms, be realistic about your goals, and don't overextend yourself until this period has passed.

Midheaven Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Nat) Oct 31, 2010

You may experience a slow trend affecting business and finances. Obstacles, hindrances, and disappointments are likely to affect progress and advancements in your career. This is not the time to change jobs or shirk responsibilities. You may experience a possible loss or separation from a parent, or disputes with bosses or a figure of authority. This trend can produce a turning point in your career through a complete change of occupation. The action is abrupt, unexpected, and generally reverses present duties. New technical equipment, computers, or machinery may be introduced in your line of work. It may be very difficult for you to maintain normal working hours, for they can fluctuate quite easily. New bosses may be difficult to get along with or may try to impose their will on you. There is a possibility of coming before the public through a personal appearance on radio or television.

Scorpio on the Eleventh Cusp

Friends have a way of disappearing. Just when you develop a close relationship with one, they move away or are transferred to another state. Their determination to be a part of your social circle will make it difficult to rid yourself of them. You have the ability to sway and control masses of people. You will have a daughter- or son-in-law who will be very secretive and difficult to communicate with or understand.
