Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp.

This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Mitt Romney Your Life Progressions for Oct 1, 2011

Cancer on the First Cusp

Emotions and feelings will play a major role in your make-up. You may become more protective and sensitive to the needs of family members. Criticism from others, no matter how constructive, will not be taken lightly. A major change has taken place within your immediate environment -- or will soon. Moving, selling, redecorating, or enlarging of your present home is likely. Conditions prevail in which someone may move in or out -- perhaps a roommate, parent, or child. Others may feel smothered by parental influences and decide to leave the nest, seeking a place of their own. The affairs of a parent or parent-in-law has required or may soon require your attention. A strong desire for future security may lead to serious consideration of investment programs. Don't permit emotional outbursts to drive you to eat, thereby gaining weight unnecessarily. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Moon, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Saturn in the First House

A personality change may occur in anyone who, during the formative years, has progressed Saturn entering the progressed first house. Youth finds it difficult to handle the restrictive and delaying elements of this placement. As a result, one may rebel against what they feel are unnecessary hindrances and undue responsibilities. Some may become belligerent against those in authority whom they feel are bearing down too heavily on them. A serious state of mind or mental depression and a lack of self-confidence may be present. Constant encouragement and praise in their accomplishments (no matter how minor), coupled with lots of affection, can help to smooth these difficult times. Braces on the teeth, skin problems, or correction of the bony structure of the body often accompany this placement. Should Saturn progress to the first house during adult years, there is a readiness for assuming responsibilities. Organizing ability is enhanced. Others recognize your strength and endurance in handling difficult tasks. As a result, you may be placed in a supervisory position. The government, political parties, or individuals of rank and authority, a parent, or an older individual will have a long-range influence upon your life. Soup and hot beverages can do wonders in warding off chills and colds during the change of seasons.

Pluto in the First House

There is a noticeable change in your personality. You are projecting an air of reserve, solitude, and secrecy. A feeling of personal loneliness may engulf you from time to time. You are becoming obstinate in your views, and developing the principle of a law unto oneself. You may quietly listen to the advice of others, but whether you heed it or not is questionable. There is innate will power to banish undesirable personality traits, correct unpleasant habits, and bring disturbing conditions to a halt. Periodic changes of personal affairs are likely to occur. They open doors to new avenues of experience, while at the same time closing doors to past situations. Should you return to any of these past conditions, the circumstances will not be the same, meriting a different set of rules. Matters connected with alimony, inheritance, consolidation of bills, bankruptcy, taxes, and other forms of joint financial resources will require personal attention.

Leo on the Second Cusp

Your organizing ability is good, and this will enable you to handle people and situations that are associated with your financial affairs. There is greater appreciation of quality. If you cannot purchase the best, you will strive for second best. Investments, gambling, romance, creative hobbies, and schools may influence personal income. Children (not necessarily your own) may be a source of financial drain or assistance. You will work best when you are placed in a position of authority.

Virgo on the Third Cusp

You are becoming more precise in your speech, the detailed handling of paperwork, and the formation of ideas. You are practical and discriminative; yet at times you can be overly critical and faultfinding of others. There is the tendency to worry over insignificant matters which may expand your health problems out of proportion. At some point during this trend, you may have to do a lot of short travels or communicating in connection with your job or the obtaining of health or sick benefits. Your neighbor or sibling may have activities with police. Or, you may call the police on your neighbor due to barking dogs or stray cats. Your thoughts will be centered around the care and improvement of your health -- perhaps reading books on proper dietary habits and vitamins.

Neptune in the Third House

Intuition and a capacity for visualization may be highly developed. There is the uncanny knack for reading other people's minds or voicing the thoughts they were about to convey at that time. The unusual in studies and subjects intrigues you. You have an imaginative mind that can be quite successful in the writing of articles or books. To succeed in this area, there is a need for self-discipline and concentration to avoid the tendency for mental drifting and daydreaming. Messages have a way of getting confused or mixed-up. Make it a point to double-check before venturing to a planned meeting place. Always review business agreements, and read the small print to avoid misunderstandings. Keep a map handy in the glove compartment in case of detours and necessary re-routing, to avoid the possibility of getting lost. Others will feel your sensitivity and begin confiding in you. Don't pass on any of the proffered information. Gossip or rumors invariably will come back to you and cause embarrassment. Brothers, sisters, and other close relations may be a source for concern, with health problems that are difficult to diagnose or require medication to control. Be ready to assist those that appear confused, or those that place too much reliance on drugs or alcoholic beverages.

Libra on the Fourth Cusp

One of your parents is going to do a lot of entertaining or play a prominent role before the general public during this trend. It appears that both you and your marriage partner may reside in your parent's home for a short time before obtaining a place of your own. At some point there may be the formulation of a partnership with a parent, perhaps in the purchase of a multiple dwelling. This sign is also associated with kidney problems and blood clots that may affect one of your parents.

Jupiter in the Fourth House

Beneficial influences prevail in the acquisition of property. Circumstances of a legal nature, in-laws, or assistance from a family member may help you achieve the home you desire. A home that is large and comfortable, with land surrounding it, providing an air of spaciousness. In some cases, published material, writing, or instructing classes may be conducted from the home. In-laws may impose upon your generosity and come to live with you for a short time. You may travel to visit family members who have moved to a distant city, and they are likely to reside in your home during their visits. Religion or religious items may provide a basis for inner security, peace, and serenity within the home base.

Scorpio on the Fifth Cusp

You are extremely sensual in romantic affairs. Guard against possessiveness and jealous tendencies. You need a hobby that will help to relax your inner tensions. Crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, and paint-by-number sets are good outlets. Your children are perplexed over your change of attitude. They find your domineering and dictatorial ways disturbing. You may find yourself in the role of money lender where children are concerned. Insurance or inheritance problems may result through your second sibling. Bars, beverage stores, surgical instruments, and tools are always a good potential for investments.

Capricorn on the Sixth Cusp

You are developing strong traits in organizing ability, efficiency, and acceptance of responsibility. You work well alone, and at some time during this trend, you may have to work the evening or night shift. There is a strong possibility you may work for the government, or there may be a governmental contract at your place of employment that requires you to wear an identification badge during this trend. If you are on salary, there is the tendency for supervisors to burden you with more than your share of work. Your only alternative is to demand extra monetary compensation. Make it a point to have lots of hot beverages and plenty of soup during winter months to keep the body temperature warm.

Capricorn on the Seventh Cusp

At this point in life, you may conduct a working relationship with your marriage partner -- perhaps a business operating from the home base. It should be to your benefit to attend social functions connected with political parties or your vocation. They can provide excellent contacts for future advancements and opportunities. Authoritative figures and individuals of prestige will touch upon your life during this trend.

Aquarius on the Eighth Cusp

Sexual responses in the past may have been too reserved or not up to par. As a result, you may be drawn to the unconventional in sexual attractions. You may suddenly get sexual overtures from individuals whom you have always considered as friends. Or, the object of your affections may be married. Use your keen sense of judgment in these affairs. They may be exciting at the time but later, you may regret your actions. It is possible during this trend to become financially involved in a joint project with a friend. Always keep a good reserve in the savings account for unexpected expenditures.

Pisces on the Ninth Cusp

Concentrate on driving and proper reading of the map, if traveling by car. Confusion and fog can create hazardous conditions. Be selective of what you eat and drink in various cities or countries. You may be sensitive to the chemicals in the water or spices in the food. Art, music, photography, psychology, chemistry, or investigative work would be good topics, if you are furthering your studies. Avoid legal entanglements during this trend, if possible. You'll find that matters are not as they appear on the surface -- either the situation is confused, the papers get lost, or there are deceptive influences at work.

Moon in Pisces

During this trend, you'll be feeling especially creative and may develop an interest in artistic pursuits, music lessons, or photography and cameras. There may be a susceptibility to external surroundings, permitting the moods and feelings of others to react upon your emotions. Be aware that someone in your immediate environment may try to instill a feeling of inferiority or create confused or deceptive conditions. Your imaginative perception and ability to see through other people may lessen their chance for manipulation. There will be a need or desire to seek periods of isolation, to savor a few hours of escapism from the tiring aspects of everyday existence -- read a good book, listen to music, or meditate and feel at one with the universe. Some sensitivity to certain medication is likely; one should only take those prescribed by a physician. Seek positive means of escapism and avoid the abuse of drugs or alcohol. This sign is associated with sensitive, weak, ill, or handicapped persons who may enter your life during this period. You may also have contacts with hospitals or other places of confinement. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life in which confusion or deception is likely to manifest itself.

Moon in the Ninth House

There is little resistance at this time toward personal progress and achievement of goals. You should strive to take advantage of all opportunities that present themselves for future growth and expansions. This is an excellent time to undertake new study courses whether they be academic or merely to improve a sporting skill. Either your chances of travel will improve or you will receive communications and visits from those living in distant cities. Emotions may be aroused through matters concerning a female in-law or a distant relative. Situations involving publications, religion, or lawsuits may come to the fore, along with foreigners and individuals from all walks of life. Blend the sign position of your progressed Moon with this house placement for greater scope concerning future advancements.

Moon Square Uranus (Prg-Nat) Jan 4, 2011

You may experience difficulties with commitments made to clubs and organizations. Be selective of new friends, associations, and emotional ties with the opposite sex. You may be magnetically drawn to the wrong type or prone to acts of indiscretion.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jan 21, 2011

You can make great strides during the next three months if you concentrate on projects that are difficult to handle and require an isolated condition from which to operate. Affairs connected with finances or business matters will be rather depressing. You are likely to brood or worry over delays in personal affairs. This is not the best time to ask favors of bosses, parents, or older individuals, or for beginning new projects. Your system may be sluggish, so get plenty of rest to renew your lowered vitality during this trend.

For preventive measures, it might be a good idea to get a health check-up and encourage others with whom you have a close bond to do the same. You will want to be in the best of health and mental frame of mind to tackle the new activities or directions that lie in the near future. You can expect these changes to affect business, personal affairs, close relationships, or environmental conditions. You may feel a restless urging to seek new associations or discard old and outmoded ones. There is the possibility of relocating, moving, or establishing new business techniques. An inner feeling of self-confidence will help you in determining your goals and objectives.

Moon Semisquare Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Apr 24, 2011

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. Moon Semisquare Venus (Prg-Nat) Jun 14, 2011

A few obstacles may lie in the path of romance and close ties. You may feel neglected and disappointed in the amount of emotional response you are receiving. Or you may experience difficulty in expressing your own affectional feelings toward another. These three months are not the best times for promoting new attachments, friendships, or acquaintances. Lack of emotional control may interfere with close relationships. You should also guard against overextending of personal finances, making unwise purchases, abusing the credit card, or lending money to unreliable individuals.

Moon Sextile Sun (Prg-Prg) Jul 4, 2011

You are in a positive state of mind, filled with optimism and a hopeful outlook. Your inspirational attitude is likely to draw admiration from others and increase your chances for social contacts, business advancement, or a new romance. Take advantage of all opportunities and channel them into constructive possibilities. You are on a roll, and should make the most of these three opportune months.

Moon Sextile Mercury (Prg-Prg) Jul 4, 2011

A very fortunate and successful trend under which to study and learn new subjects. Concentrate on improving your mentality in all directions. Favorable for expansion of business and negotiation of contracts. Write books, handle neglected correspondence, and travel. Plan pleasurable outings with brothers and sisters and other close relatives. You have good, sound judgment at this time, and should be successful in reaching satisfactory decisions concerning future gains and expansion.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Pluto (Prg-Prg) Aug 25, 2011

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Moon Opposition Neptune (Prg-Prg) Jul 28, 2012

Temporary difficulties may upset close ties or family members, through confused issues or misunderstandings. You may be lost in your own busy world and not aware that hidden elements are sprouting up between yourself and others. Not the best time for making important decisions or signing contracts. Be extra cautious if you must sign papers, by seeking reputable assistance from one who can help you understand the fine print. You can be easily persuaded, through the smooth talk of others, into doing something you may later regret. Travel should also be postponed, if at all possible. This is a period in which you must think in logical terms and avoid those pretending to be something they are not.

Moon Sextile Venus (Prg-Nat) Aug 3, 2012

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be a happy, relaxed, and successful period -- one in which you should take advantage of all opportunities for social advancements. Do what you can to make yourself available for new contacts that can lead to successful linking of associations. Emotions and feelings are stirred, adding new zest to the marriage state or drawing attention from the opposite sex, if single. A general improvement of financial success, receiving of social invitations, flowers, or gifts is indicated.

Moon Semisquare Sun (Prg-Prg) Sep 23, 2012

Approximately three and one-half years ago, you may have undertaken a new start or direction in life. Some minor setback (an emotional crisis or other source of irritation) may have you wondering if you made the right decision. The emotions and your sense of pride may be hurt during this three-month trend, from rejection or what you may feel is undue criticism from others. This is a time to hold back and develop a "wait and see" attitude rather than push ahead against temporary prevailing obstacles.
